

Upcoming Sunday Worship Service

Two-Service Sundays starts September 19

September 5, 2010 at 10:00 a.m.

Well I Used to Be Disgusted, Now I Try to Be Amused

We are on the sixth strand of the eight-fold path this Sunday, "Right Effort." Teacher Eric Kolvig says you can sum up this aspect of the path by saying "Try to do your practice, but don't try too hard, and never give up." I remember learning to canoe on a very bony river. Drought had taken the water level down to a couple of inches in the stretch I was on. I was paddling as hard as I could and getting nowhere. Why were my teachers laughing?

Blessing of the Waters

Water is a fundamental element of life. Sages advise us to take on its qualities of humility (as it seeks the lowest levels) and persistence (as it wears eventually even through rock). It also mingles companionably with other water without regard to place of origin. Let us celebrate our own mingling by bringing water from home or travel, from a place that has fed your spirit.

Worship Leaders: Revs. Meg Barnhouse & Chris Reed Worship Associate: Drake Baer

Music: Adult Choir, soloists, Marjorie Herman, Beth Ertz

September 19, 2010 at 9:15 & 11:15 a.m.

Atonement in Practice

Yesterday was Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement in the Jewish tradition. In our theological diversity we approach atonement from different practices: Yom Kippur services, Christian confessions, Buddhist right living, 12 Step making amends, daily prayer....

Some say that it is not one's feeling that brings or starts a practice, but rather one's intentional practice invites the feeling. How do we bring the practice of atonement into our lives? Why?

Worship Leader: Rev. Chris Reed Worship Associate: Stephanie Hanzel Cohen

Music: John Bachalis—clarinet, Marjorie Herman, Beth Ertz

Reaching Beyond!

Suzanne Fast and Jacqui C. Williams, of the "Beyond Categorical Thinking" team of the Unitarian Universalist Association will lead us in worship. Dovetailing with their Saturday workshop, this service will address our often unconscious biases that prevent us from being open to those of different appearance, ability or socio-economic background from our own. This service is an important part of the congregation's Ministerial Search process. Come be part of it!

Guest Worship Leaders: Ministerial Search Committee

Worship Associate: Ron Campbell

Music: Marjorie Herman, Beth Ertz

Reflection Reverend Meg Barnhouse

Dear Ones,

I have two things to write to you about this month. One is that the Worship Associates group is adding a new element to the worship service: silent candles of joy and sorrow. Here's how we envision it: At the beginning of the service, after the Unison Affirmation, we will have a centering time with meditative music. During this time, people will be invited to come forward, choose a candle, light it from the chalice flame, and anchor it in the pebbles. The candles we are using are slender white and colored menorah candles which should burn for the length of the service. Pat Lange, who created the chalice we light every Sunday, has donated a ceramic bowl she made. Filled with small pebbles, this bowl will hold our lit candles. If we end up needing a larger bowl, we'll get one. The Worship Associates thought this would be a good addition to the service, allowing for congregational participation in worship, for physical movement in the service, for the acknowledgement of the sacredness of the stories of our lives, and for an additional dimension of visual and emotional beauty in the service.

The second thing I want to let you know about is that the congregation needs more of your feedback. The following are the "Big Five" duties of an Interim Minister. To facilitate discussions and experiences that:

- Claim and honor a congregation's past and engage and honor its griefs and conflicts.
- Recognize a its unique identity and its strengths, needs, and challenges.
- Clarify the appropriate leadership roles of minister(s), church staff, and lay leaders and to navigate the shifts in leadership that may accompany times of transition.
- Make appropriate use of District,

UUA, and other outside resources.

- Proudly come into possession of a renewed vision and strong stewardship, prepared for new growth and new professional leadership, ready to embrace the future with anticipation and zest.

Last year we gathered in members' homes for "Cottage Meetings" in which we discussed the future structure of the professional ministerial leadership of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Princeton. In a congregational meeting, you voted to call a "Lead Minister," who would then participate in further discussions about whether this congregation should have a multi-clergy staff or have a solo minister with other professionals staffing the program and executive functions supporting the congregation's mission.

We had several Forums in which we discussed the congregation's past, its relationships with ministers and DREs, its way of handling challenges and conflicts. This year our cottage meetings will cover the "strengths, needs and challenges" of this congregation. What do you do well? What is the core identity of this community? How are things working for members, volunteers, committees and newcomers? What is your sense of the new governance structure where the Board makes policy, articulates the goals (ends) of the congregation and where the ministers are tasked with moving the congregation toward those ends? How is that structure working well? How is it not working well? If you have comments about any or all of those things, please be alert to announcements about the Cottage Meetings this fall and make plans to come listen and contribute.

Ministerial Search Committee

SAVE THE WEEKEND!!!
SEPTEMBER 25 AND 26

The Ministerial Search Committee is excited about starting off the fall with the UUA program

Beyond Categorical Thinking

The Beyond Categorical Thinking (BCT) program helps promote inclusive thinking and prevent unfair discrimination in the ministerial search process. During the Beyond Categorical Thinking Saturday morning workshop and Sunday service, we will learn more about our institutional culture, examine ways we can be more inclusive in our consideration of ministerial candidates, and identify subtle and often unintentional, unconscious biases we hold that may result in a decision to not select the minister who would be the best fit for our ministerial needs.

Unitarian Universalist ministers who identify as people of color; as Latina/Latino/Hispanic; as bisexual, gay, lesbian, and/or transgender; or as a person with a disability often have a more difficult time in the ministerial search process because of unconscious congregational biases. Even in congregations that have called a minister, interim minister, or intern from one of these identity groups, new biases have arisen because the congregation mistakenly assumed that the presence of these ministers means that they have adequately addressed diversity issues and need no further work.

The Beyond Categorical Thinking program creates opportunities for conversations and reflection that will help us uncover issues related to identity. In the process, we will explore some of our biases, learn more about the search process, and begin to think about next steps, such as further consultation, education, or training beyond the BCT program.

The program will include a three-hour workshop on Saturday and our Sunday morning worship service. Two facilitators from the UUA will guide us through the experience:

Suzanne Fast is a certified spiritual director and a graduate of Meadville Lombard Theological School. A cradle UU, she has been involved in many aspects of congregational and UU life, in many parts of the country. Suzanne is particularly interested in the spiritual journeying of adults and children, and the connections we make between our inward journeys, our daily lives, and our shared work for a just society.

Jacqui C. Williams began attending services at the UU congregation in Glens Falls, New York, in 1995 and joined in 1996. She served on numerous committees and was a GA delegate several times. Jacqui served as board president for one term before moving to Albany, where she is a member of the First Unitarian Universalist Society of Albany. In addition to her work with the Beyond Categorical Thinking program, she is a member of the UUA Commission on Appraisal and co-chair of Catalyst, the St. Lawrence District anti-oppression work team. Her personal passion is FIGAH—Filling in the Gaps in American History. As of this spring, Jacqui has launched her own business, JC3Consulting on issues around ending sexual violence.

The Search Committee members are looking forward to sharing this experience with you. More details to follow at our Ministerial Search Committee table and online in September.

NEWCOMERS' CIRCLES

Next circle starts on Sunday, September 19. It will meet on Sundays after the second service from 12:30—1:45 on September 19, October 3 & 17, November 7 & 21, and December 5 in the John Murray Room.

This six session program is an opportunity for newcomers to explore the central traditions and understandings of our faith. It is also a great opportunity to get to know 11 other people in a small group setting.

A Newcomers' Circle is part Covenant Circle and part discussion group for newcomers. The themes focus on the topics that are most compelling for those who are new to our faith and for those who are seeking religious community.

Newcomers' Circles meet for three months, every other week for a total of six meetings.

If you would like to join the next Newcomers' Circle please sign up at the Welcome Circle in Robinson Hall on Sundays or contact Rev. Chris Reed at reed@uuprinceton.org or 924-1604, ext 12 or events@uuprinceton.org

SMALL GROUP MINISTRY—

"Get Plugged In" Join a Covenant Circle

Covenant Circles create community, encourage spiritual growth, and invite authentic connection with one another. After a check in and short meditation, participants reflect on and share responses to questions that evoke our individual sacred stories.

- There is time for discussion, questions, and socializing for the last 20 to 30 minutes of each Circle. (The previous format did not give enough opportunity for this.)
- Each Circle is encouraged to get together socially a few times and/or work together on a social justice or service project.
- We grow new groups as needed, so that we hopefully turn no one away.
- Circles meet from year to year.

Please sign up at the Adult Program table in Robinson Lounge or contact Shelle Sumners at sumners@uuprinceton.org, 609-924-1604, ext. 14 or Chris Reed at reed@uuprinceton.org, 609-924-1604, ext. 12 if you are interested in joining a Covenant Circle.

- suggested dates and times
- any costs for materials associated with the course (no fees may be charged for presenting an adult program)

All proposals will be reviewed by the Adult Program Committee and the ministers. Final scheduling and publicizing of the course will be the responsibility of the Adult Program Committee and the facilitators). Please submit any proposals to Rev. Chris Reed, reed@uuprinceton.org.

NEW PROGRAMS

Buddhist Group Forming

Have you been excited by Meg's sermons on Buddhism?

Would you like to explore how to actually use this way of thinking in our day-to-day living? How about meditation? Those of us who have had even a taste of this practice know that the simple act of sitting quietly together can create a greater sense of peace. And yet, even knowing its benefits, many of us struggle to make this practice a part of our lives.

Does the idea of meeting together to experiment with these ideas appeal to you?

We would like to start a group that meets weekly at UUCP. We could combine a period of meditation with a time to explore how to incorporate a more Buddhist approach into our lives drawing on readings and/or Meg's sermons to inspire our quest. If you want to listen to Meg's sermons on Buddhism to help you decide, the tapes are available in the bookshelf in the lounge-- September 6 2009 (Right Livelihood), January 3, 2010 (Right Understanding), March 28, 2010 (Right Speech) and July 25, 2010 (Right Action).

We will settle on a day and time based on what might work best for potential participants. Let us know if you are interested: Michele Ochsner mochsner@work.rutgers.edu 609-924-1166; Dana Powsner danapowsner@comcast.net 609-924-5891; Henry Powsner powsner@comcast.net 609-924-5891.

ONGOING PROGRAMS

Telling Our Stories

The program series of videotaped interviews with some of our amazing senior members who have lived fascinating, engaged and committed lives will continue this year. In our youth-worshipping culture, we often forget to respect the elders in our midst and miss opportunities to learn from their wisdom. It is sad to experience the wonders of our Elders only from their eulogies.

On Sunday, September 19, Charlie Parker, "author and octogenarian" will tell his life story at the FORUM between the two services in the John Murray room.

On Thursday, October 21, Lorraine Anderson, "teacher and 30+ year member" will tell her life story at the Alliance meeting.

On Sunday, August 8, Joan Waite told her life story, just before she and Bob moved to Sarasota, Florida. Watch future Skylights for Telling Our Stories by Henry Powsner, Sue and Butch Arnould, Tony Tucker and Marie Sturken.

Y oung Adult Circle

Ages 20-35(ish)

On a Sunday to be announced, at 12:30 p.m.

Come and join us at our next meeting as we continue to form a new Young Adult circle for our congregation. This is a unique spiritual stage in our lives, and our spiritual growth and enjoyment during this time is enhanced by a loving, supportive and social community.

We meet on the first Sunday of each month for fellowship and spiritual discussion, and the third Saturday of each month for a social activity. Please come and help shape this vital ministry to all who walk through our doors looking for such a community of peers.

To find out more about us, look for the flyer at the Adult Program Table in Robinson Lounge on Sundays. You can sign up in the lounge or by contacting Valentine Vollmer datura1207@aol.com

A ging and Saging

2nd & 4th Wednesdays at 10:30a-Noon

September 8 and 22 in the John Murray Room

An ongoing program for all over 60 years old. Or anyone who feels over 60. We share our experiences, stories, feelings and information with each other.

We offer this affinity circle for those who would like to meet during the day to create a community of loving, supporting, learning individuals who find it exciting to explore the terrain of getting older with one another.

"Sage" is apparently only a noun and an adjective, but for you purists out there, please consider that it resonates with both —age and, as someone over 60 just said, also with sag, both respected verbs.

Sign up by sending e-mail to events@uuprinceton.org or on Sundays in Robinson Lounge at the Adult Program table.

In "this breathtaking and powerful novel that garnered nominations for both the National Book Award and the PEN/Faulkner Award, Bell turns to the past and brings viscerally to life the slave rebellion that would bring an end to the white rule of Haiti in the late eighteenth century. The result is an explosive, epic historical novel of astonishing depth and range." Join for shared reflections and cookies. A Course in Miracles

Sundays 11:15 am—12:30 pm in the John Murray Room

A Course in Miracles will continue to study the Workbook for Students. We will continue to meet in the John Murray room after the service each Sunday. In addition to the Workbook for Students we will make comparisons with Emanuel's Book and the New Earth. Emanuel's Book is also channeled, was written within 10 years of the Course and focuses on the realization of who we truly are. Some of the comparisons are striking. Come join us after the first service in the Murray room. ~Hil Anderson

UU CONNECTIONS

UU DELEGATION RETURNS FROM MINNEAPOLIS INSPIRED!

Allison Woolbert, Jonathon Sachs, Susan Sachs, Craig Rubano, Jane Fetter, and Ted Fetter represented UUCP at the Unitarian Universalist General Assembly (GA) in Minneapolis in June and returned inspired by the time spent with 4,000 lively UUs. Because of the oppressive law passed in Arizona regarding immigrants' rights and civil rights, UU's discussed whether or not they were morally obligated to boycott Phoenix, AZ as a 2012 General Assembly site. It was decided to go to Phoenix as activists and demonstrate against oppressive rulings. The new 2010-2014 UUA Study Action Issue will be Immigrants' Rights.

During the autumn months, our UUCP delegates will have opportunities in after-service gatherings to give their perspectives on GA 2010 and to encourage you to attend GA 2011 in Charlotte, NC, and GA 2012 in Phoenix, AZ.

~Carol Allen, UU Connections Committee

Board of Trustees

What will the Board of Trustees be doing this Fall? Top BOT goals include creating new opportunities for linking with the Congregation

Although the Board began 2009-10 with forums on leadership structures and roles, events last year did not allow much time to focus on a broad vision of life here at UUCP. Our agenda was focused on the Board's fiduciary responsibilities as we dealt with decisions related to Rev. Forrest Gilmore's departure, participation in the cottage meeting process to consider the future of our professional ministry, working with Rev. Meg Barnhouse and the Search committee on launching the ministerial search process, and wrestling with challenges related to planning our budget in the face of declining revenues.

The annual summer retreat and recent Board meetings have offered a moment to catch our collective breath—and think about our toolbox for strengthening the flow of communication between the congregation and Board members. Here are some of our upcoming plans:

Working with Rev. Barnhouse, the Trustees will participate in fostering a dialogue about our congregational life including our current leadership structure (Policy Governance). We will seek participation from the entire congregation with gatherings to be scheduled later this congregational year.

On the second Sunday of each month, we will be staffing a table and circulating through Robinson Lounge between services. After the second service some of us will be sitting at a designated Board table in the brunch. Our goal is to listen and engage in discussions about what we can accomplish together.

Board representatives will be contacting other UUCP leadership structures and standing committees to arrange to sit in on their meetings—in order to listen and better understand the challenges and dreams of UUCP volunteers. We also invite committee leadership and any interested members to attend one or more of our monthly meetings as an observer. If we know ahead of time that you will be attending, we will be glad to schedule additional time for interaction before the start of the meeting.

Prefer to put your thoughts in writing? Coming soon—a "suggestion box" that will be placed in the lounge. You can also send us your thoughts via email at board@uuprinceton.org.

We will also be instituting quarterly lunches with UUCP's administrative staff to make sure we understand the staff's perspective on our programs and services.

Finally—this is the first of a regular series of BOT updates to appear in Skylights to keep you informed of our agenda and activities.

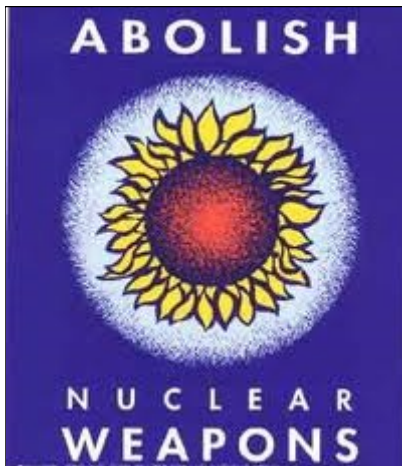

We believe that creating more and better opportunities to seek out the myriad perspectives of this community will inform our work on church policies. In the language of policy governance, this means crafting "Ends Statements" that capture the Congregation's values and concerns in language that can be used by our ministers, staff and volunteer leaders to effectively move towards these "Ends." Over the next few months—our column in Skylights will describe some of the issues we hope to explore this year...looking forward to hearing from you soon!

ABOLITION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS

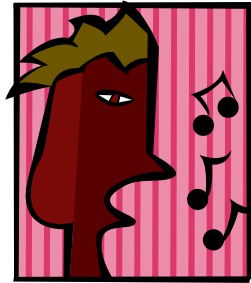

Some 25 persons have signed letters in Robinson Lounge encouraging the U.S. Senate to ratify the new START Treaty which would reduce U.S. and Russian stockpiles of nuclear weapons. The letters also oppose any new funding for new nuclear facilities intended to replace existing weapons systems. This letter writing project will be ongoing until the Senate acts on the START Treaty with opposition to new facilities continuing. ~Carol Allen

CRISIS MINISTRY

Life places many demands on our time and our resources. Part of our daily activity is eating. Imagine not having food for yourself, for your family. Thank goodness for a program like the Crisis Ministry Food Pantry that is there to address such want in these difficult economic times. Please remember as you come to Sunday service to drop off contributions of food staples, personal care items, and disposal diapers in the collection bin by the front door. Thank you! ~Diana Gray

Singing Meditation - an afternoon workshop at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Princeton on October 3, 2010 from 2 - 5pm. This event is co-sponsored with the interfaith group Fellowship in Prayer.

Whoever said "you can't go home again" was not referring to Ruthie Rosauer! "As a native of New Jersey and a 1971 graduate of Ewing High School and 1975 graduate of Trenton State College the central New Jersey area will always feel like "home" to me. [My name back then was Ruthie Shuman in case anybody is wondering if they knew me then.]

In April 2009 I led a Singing Meditation workshop at the Unitarian Universalist Church at Washington Crossing organized by Holly Bussey and Kathy Frey. It was a wonderful group with joyful singing and dancing. Now there is an ongoing group at that church for Singing Meditation. Many thanks to Holly and Kathy for organizing that splendid day!"

The workshop on October 3 is open to anyone interested in participating in Singing Meditation. This Princeton session will include toning, a short introductory lecture, a taste of sacred circle dancing and conclude with a Singing Meditation session.

Singing Meditation is an interfaith spiritual practice and, accordingly, the songs for this session will be drawn from a variety of spiritual paths. The 2 -5 minute intervals of silence will be undirected and may be used for contemplation, meditation or prayer. You do not need to be an experienced singer, able to read music -- or a Unitarian Universalist -- to participate in this joyful workshop!

"I'm looking forward to sharing Singing Meditation in New Jersey again. I hope many of you will be able to join us!" Cost is $20 at the door, but $15 if pre-registered by September 30 (by phone 609 -924-6863 and ask for Linda Baumann, or by email to lbaumann@fellowshipinprayer.org with "singing meditation" in your header.)

A follow up session is planned for the 2nd Wednesday in Feb (the 9th) 7pm at Fellowship In Prayer and plans are in the works for a spring weekend at Murray Grove. ~Carol Haag

Music Ministry Ensembles Begin Again

Adult Choir. Once again, we held our Choir Open House on August 29, 2010. All those present experienced what singing in this jolly band is all about. But there's still room for all interested. Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings beginning September 1 from 7:30pm til 9:00pm. Singers of all stripes are welcome.

Bell Choir. Our new third octave means that more ringers are needed. Rehearsals are generally every other Thursday beginning Sept. 16. Previous ringing experience is a plus, but rudimentary knowledge of music reading is essential.

Kids' Chorale. We'd love to welcome your child(ren) to the ranks of the Kids' Chorale this season. The Kids' rehearse on Sundays between services beginning Sept. 26 in Room 2, and we have some terrific music to learn for services this year.

For all information on joining our ensembles, contact Marjorie Herman at marjimuse@optonline.net, or call her at 609-924-1604, ext. 16.

Music Ministry Announces its "Composer-in-Residence" We are thrilled to announce a new position sponsored by the UUCP Music Ministry: Composer-in-Residence. This year we feel most fortunate to have appointed Kiya Heartwood to that position. Kiya is a gifted and award-winning composer, singer, writer, and performer. Her larger compositions include song cycles for Womens Chorus, operettas for young people, and soundtracks for independent films. Kiya is currently studying Composition in the Master of Music program at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, NJ.

As Composer-in-Residence at UUCP this year, she will provide music for selected Sunday services. She will also contribute three special projects during the 2010-2011 season: an opera "Lying to the Sea Gypsy" (the second

Music Ministry Mission Statement

To provide, through the power of music, a dynamic ministry that will inspire transcendent personal experiences, draw the congregation into greater kinship, and bring inspiration to the wider community.

September Hymn of the Month

With the September services, we resume our "Hymn of the Month," a practice begun last fall to increase our repertory of inspiring hymns. This month's hymn is "De Colores", No. 305, based on a traditional Spanish folk tune. The words were written by David Arkin, a member of the committee that created the volume How Can We Keep From Singing!, published in 1976 by the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, California.

of our Sunday Serenades – see page 11), a performance art worship service called "Afri-kin" for Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday, and a choral work for our spring concert (the last of our Sunday Serenades) with the theme Voices of the Feminine – An Emerging Story. In addition, she will mount a repeat of her "Gaia Psalms" for Earth Day, 2011.

Opera Production at UU This December

"Lying to the Sea Gypsy" by Kiya Heartwood is coming to UUCP on December 5. Auditions will be held in Fahs Theater on Friday, Sept. 10 from 4:00 -6:30 pm. We'll be looking for actors and singers nine acting/singing parts in the work, which will begin rehearsals in mid-September. Actors and singers should come prepared with a poem to recite and a song to sing. We're also looking for set builders and backstage managers, as well as a choreographer. Children of all ages and adults are encouraged to audition. Here's the theme: "A 13-year old who is obsessed with becoming a pirate accidentally summons the Sea Witch of the pirates who grants the child's three wishes. And that's when the trouble begins." Call Marjorie for audition times and information: 609-924-1604, ext. 16.

Hymn-Writing Contest – Call for Metrical Poetry

The Music Ministry is sponsoring a hymn writing contest, a collaboration between UUCP's own talented poets and Westminster Choir College. The first step will be gathering the poetry, i.e. words to the hymn(s). Submissions are due by November 5, and poets are encouraged to peruse our hymnals for style and meter of the texts used in UU hymnody. The goal is the selection of the text(s) by Thanksgiving and have those text(s) delivered to WCC in time for their holiday break. Contact Marjorie for more information.

Sunday Serenades 2010-11. It's going to be a terrific series of concerts this year. Mark your calendars for the following dates:

- Sunday, October 24, 3:00 p.m. Loughran String Quartet
- Sunday, December 5, 3:00 & 7:00 p.m. Lying to the Sea Gypsy, a children's opera by Kiya Heartwood

Looking Ahead – Music Lovers, Awake!

Perhaps you are a music lover, a supporter of what we're trying to accomplish, but you are not an active participant. Chances are there's something valuable you can contribute to our ministry. You can join our Music Ministry Committee, which meets for one hour one Wednesday evening per month, to share your ideas about enhancing the vibrancy of our Ministry, including helping us decide on next year's roster of concerts for our Sunday Serenades Concert Series. Or, you could volunteer in a number of other ways: helping with publicity for Sunday Serenades, or helping for a "Serenade" in exchange for free admission, to name only two. Read our Mission Statement on page 13 and if you're inspired to help in any capacity, contact Jordan Corn (jjcorn@meredithpoint.com) or Marjorie Herman (marjmuse@optonline.net).

Thoughts on the Turnover Among Worship Associates at UUCP

by Ted Fetter

For the past three years, I have had the privilege of being one of the Worship Associates at our congregation. About seven or eight of us rotate assignments for the Sunday worship services, and we have three-year terms. It's time for me to rotate off. This fall, in fact, quite a few of the "regulars" are also rotating off; so starting this month you will see largely a new group of Worship Associates. I want to describe the program as it exists in our congregation, and I want to introduce the extraordinary new group of Worship Associates who will be making their own contributions to our worship.

The use of Worship Associates started in Princeton about eight years ago, during the interim leadership of Robert Latham. Robert and Chris Reed designed the program and recruited the initial group. Since then, some truly talented and insightful persons have shared their voices and experiences as part of our worship experience. I have the following list. If it's not complete, then I'm truly sorry and I'll do what I can to make it up to any whom I'm missing, but I list these folks because of a desire to celebrate their contributions to our worship:

Maggie Beaumont	Ben Krejci	Raj Nigam
Jeanne Carsten	Kathy Lehmann	Mike Piscetelli
Eva Liane Foster	Rice Lyons	Todd Royer
Alice Harper	Judy Malsbury	Betty Sinha
Elissa Hoeger	Greg Nagy	Anil Warriar
Caroline Kulesza

Right now, a large number of us are rotating off:

Jeff Bock	Sharon Copeland	Jordan Corn
Ted Fetter	Rachel Gittleman	Kate Henry

All the ministers and most of the Worship Associates agree that we should strictly adhere to a three-year term for Worship Associates. This is truly part of the Shared Ministry approach to our community, and there are many who can be part of the ministry of worship. The assumption is that there are lots of voices to be heard in our congregation, lots of experiences to learn about and apply in the "Reflections" that are an important part of the Worship Associate's participation in the worship service. We should not depend too much on just a few; instead we should reach out and involve more and more of our congregation in this experience.

The Worship Associate does a number of things to contribute to the service. Most visible, no doubt, is the Reflection, a short essay on the sermon topic of the morning. Reflections are not intended as research pieces but personal stories or experiences related to the minister's sermon. Associates confer with the minister in advance and consider what they can share about the topic. They prepare a written Reflection and send it with the minister in advance -- not to censor but to assure there are no conflicts and sometimes to allow the minister to refer back to something in the reflection. But the Worship Associate participates in other ways: Welcome and Announcements or Opening Words or leading a Responsive Reading or sometimes other elements of the service. They also have a number of duties to prepare for each service, such as assuring the chalice is ready to be lit, that the sound system works, and so on. In short, the Worship Associate is an assistant to the minister who is leading the service, doing whatever they can to make sure the service is smooth and effective.

When there is a guest preacher, the duties of the Worship Associate usually grow. Those will be defined between the Associate and the guest, and sometimes they involve many elements of the service that our regular ministers customarily take care of. But the Worship Associates receive training to be able to pitch in with any part of the service, again with the result, we hope, that the service is conducted smoothly for the congregants.

I am truly pleased with the talented group of new Worship Associates we'll see in this coming year. We have two who are continuing: Drake Baer and Ron Campbell. In addition to Drake and Ron, the new Worship Associates will be Stephanie Hanzel Cohen, Bridgette Heller, Patricia Hennigan, Kirsten Shearer, Chris Sturm, and Grace Hayes-Larson. These folks will bring their own perspectives into our worship, and I can't wait to learn from them.

I have very much enjoyed being a Worship Associate. It has been a privilege to work with Forrest Gilmore, Chris Reed, and Meg Barnhouse, as well as the occasional guest preachers I've been able to work with. And of course, I've taken pride that my voice and my perspective have occasionally been part of our community's worship. But it's definitely time to hear from others, and I look forward with great anticipation to the contributions of Worship Associates this coming year and into the future.

Cherry Hill Nursery School and UUCP

Way back in 1958, during the planning of the new church building, a nursery school group was formed by members of the church who arranged to rent space in the completed church. Cherry Hill Nursery School has been recognized as one of the premier nursery schools in the area. Many former students are now enrolling their own children in the school, imagine that! CHNS is in no way associated with the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Princeton, other than they pay us to use the classrooms and playground and other facilities. Just like the UUCP Sunday School, CHNS is a co-op school, which means parents must commit to spending time helping out in the classroom, no nannies or other surrogates. Parents must be committed to the preschool education of their children.

Throughout the school year the students enjoy special programs including live animal presentations, a virtual whale watch, and lots of physical activity and arts and crafts. CHNS is not a daycare center, it is a preschool, or nursery school, for kids ranging in age from 2 ½ to 5.

If you have young children or have friends or relatives with young children, Cherry Hill Nursery School may be just the environment for your family. If you'd like to talk with a CHNS parent about enrolling your child for the upcoming school year please call 609-921-0489.

SUNDAY BRUNCHES

Sunday Brunches are a wonderful way for your group to minister to the congregation with food and also to earn money for a cause. These brunches do not have to be fancy or much work. The congregation is very grateful to have bagels and soup available between services and for a short time after second service.

Some groups like to put on fancy brunches, but others like to keep it simple. All is appreciated. They usually consist of bagels, maybe an egg dish, soups, and some desserts. Most food is donated, but if one person brings a lot, they should reimburse themselves. The payment can be by donation or the group can set prices.

The money can be used as your group wishes. The music groups have bought new bells, campus ministry funds the students on campus, the youth pick a charity of their choice to donate to.....

Please consider picking a date during the year and signing up early. You can contact me, Carolyn Hoeschele, at carolynh@princeton.edu or 466-0034.

Hand Sanitizer!

Help ward off those nasty germs by using our newly installed hand sanitizer. You'll find dispensers around the building.

Joys and Sorrows

To help nurture a beloved community here in this congregation, please remember to share significant events in members' lives with the Pastoral Associates, who are charged with extending the pastoral ministry. This column is a place to inform the larger community of major events in people's lives. Sometimes people want to have their news shared; sometimes privacy and confidentiality prevail. Items for this column should be sent to skylights@uuprinceton.org. All items will be reviewed by the Pastoral Associate leadership team before printing (Jon Krejci, Rev. Chris Reed, and Elizabeth Silverman.)

Herb Foster writes: My mother, Frankie Foster, passed away the morning of July 30 at the age of 104+. She was a dedicated, loving mother. She brought me up along with my two sisters. Then she brought up four granddaughters, my nieces. She was tired, and now she rests.

We are sad to announce that Sherrie and Michael Wells' beautiful son, Brady, passed away on 7/30/10, at the age of 23 months, after a 10 month battle with leukemia. In Brady's honor, his parents created the "Hugs for Brady Foundation," a non-profit organization dedicated to raising awareness and resources for pediatric cancer.

She's Now Wearing Two Hats!!

You all know Pia O'Loughlin as our Youth Program Coordinator, and now more of you will be interacting with her as she assumes the additional role of Office Assistant. Pia's hours as OA will be: Tue-Wed-Thu from 10-2. She will wear her Youth Program Coordinator hat on Sundays, please respect the office hours of these two distinct positions. ~Sara Oderwald

The UUCP Relational Covenant

Our covenant affirms a commitment to build loving, healthy and trusting relationships within our congregation. We make these promises in order to love better, relate more compassionately and feel the power of our human connections.

Our Promises:

- ◆ We warmly welcome all.
- ◆ We speak with honesty, respect and compassion.
- ◆ We listen attentively.
- ◆ We express gratitude for the service of others.
- ◆ We honor and support one another in our spiritual journeys and in times of joy, need and struggle.
- ◆ We embrace our diversity and the opportunity to share our different perspectives.
- ◆ We address our disagreements directly and openly and see conflict through to an authentic resolution.
- ◆ We serve our spiritual community with generosity and joy.
- ◆ We strive to keep these promises, but when we fall short, we forgive ourselves and others and begin again in love.

COFFEE AND TEA VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SEPTEMBER

We all love a hot cup of coffee or tea after the Sunday services. If there are 40 regular Sundays with two services, that adds up to 80 volunteers needed for the academic year. Directions, supplies, and help are provided. Most Sundays, Jorge, our Faithful Custodian, brews the big urns of coffee and sets them up. Volunteer tasks include putting out cups, sugar, milk, etc before the first service and cleaning up after the second service. Time to sign up for a turn starting in September! ~Carol Allen, ad hoc coffee committee
